Welcome to the Saale-Unstrut vine crop district!

Virgin landscapes with vineyards, steep terraces, one hundred year old stonewalls, romantic houses on the hills and picturesque river valleys give special character to this 664ha Saale-Unstrut area of quality crop. Over 40 private vineyards, Freyburg Winegrowers Association, Landesweingut Kloster Pforta vineyard and Rottkäppchen Sektkellerei winery invite you to taste wine, savour it and spend time along the Weinstraße Saale-Unstrut wine track.

Our wines have a subtle fruit and pearl bouquet. The list of our wines may serve as an example, from the subtle spicy Müller Thurgau, through subtle fruit Weißburgunder wine to the doughy Silvaner. Riesling, Kerner and Bacchus wine shall also gain wide recognition. Every fourth litre of wine is red! Blauer Zweigelt, Spätburgunder, Dornfelder and Portugieser experience a significant growing tendency of interest. What is more, delicacies such as superb Eiswein and Beerenauslese wines await palates of the gourmets. Today, the wine region is divided between three federal states: Saxony-Anhalt (603 ha), Thuringia (54 ha) and Brandenburg (7 ha).

Due to extended bicycle roads, walking alleys and water routes the region is perceived as a diversified one. Allow yourself to participate in the exploratory journey through the Saale-Unstrut wine variety. Cheers!

Weingut Herzer vineyard from Naumburg/Roßbach

Herzer vineyard was established in Naumburg in 1992 as a vine growing plant producing grapevine. The seat of the company is situated in the idyllic small town of Roßbach, located near Naumburg. The Herzer family owns historic household from the year 1252. Number of gold medals from regional and national wine-tasting documents the high position of the vineyard within the Saale-Unstrut region.

2005 Gault Millau guide recommends this vineyard as a "small recommendation".

Territories: Naumburger Steinmeister, Dorndorfer Rappental and Großjenaer Blütengrund

State-run vineyard Kloster Pforta in Bad Kösen

In the eighties, the vineyard had a cultivation area of 120 hectares. In the year 1993, the public vineyard was taken over by the state-run vineyard Kloster Pforta of the Federal State of Saxony-Anhalt.

The vineyard possesses some of the best vineyard slopes at Saale and Unstrut. Among which, some individual areas are solely owned, such as the "Saalhäuser" or the "Gosecker Dechantenberg", the oldest continuously run terraced slope of the region.

Vineyard Thürkind in Gröst

Already reaching out to the third generation, the family Thürkind cultivates grapes in the wonderful Saale-Unstrut-Triasland. Through the establishment of the vineyard in the year 1991, they have actively contributed to the fact that a very ancient and renowned German wine region can relive its glorious days of the past. In grape slopes managed under greenhouse conditions, the grape varieties, inter alia, Müller-Thurgau, Riesling, Kerner, Blue Portuguese and Zweigelt thrive prosperously. The vineyard gets numerous awards in the state and country-level prize-giving ceremonies.

Rottkäppchen Sektkellerei winery, Freyburg

Since 1856 this traditional vineyard in the city of Freyburg produces subtle fruit and fully ripe sparkling wines of unique quality, widely known abroad. The courtyard from the break of the centuries, five-level cellar vaults and enormous Domkeller cellar with 100 year old large sculpted Holzcuveefaß barrel invite you to visit.
